

How absurd and arrogant Sinclair is to try to corrupt the public process for their own corporate agenda on free public air waves by showing the anti Kerry film so close to the election and to consider it "news".

I am a registered Republican and would be writing this if it was Michael Moore's film that was being shown the same way.